

LET IT SNOW

Loving this locket. The image is an original illustration by artist Lee May Foster-Wilson which has been applied to the Bonbi Forest locket and glazed. There's space for two pictures inside and the locket, adorned with brass snowflakes and snowy Swarovski crystals, hangs from a dainty silver-plated chain that comes in two lengths – 18 or 27inch. Clip on to add a chic festive flourish to a winter wardrobe – and so much more stylish than a Christmas jumper.

• Let it Snow Locket, £20, comes in gold or silver, at bonbiforest.com.

ICE QUEEN

Please Santa, we have been very good girls all year and would like to wish for, well, anything from Jo Malone London. We would be so happy to find a chic Cologne Collection box under the tree (containing a choice of exquisitely fragranced 9ml bottles of cologne, £68) which comes gift-wrapped in a festive red ribbon. Pretty please, Santa.

• Jo Malone London, Rose Crescent, Cambridge.

SPARKLE AND SHINE

No party princess is complete without a sprinkling of the shiny stuff. These Fairy Dust Eye Shimmers will rock your look all Christmas. Choose from Crushed Amethyst, Onyx, Platinum, Copper and Lapis. Or mix and match. Or wear them all.

ALL OF A QUIVER

Quiver is a new and rather fetching addition to Cambridge. The theatrical, Georgian-inspired shop is home to some eccentric characters (eccentric as in interesting, not eccentric as in mad-as-a-box-of-frogs) who set the scene beautifully for a range of clothing, jewellery, high-end British-made corsets, costumery and curios. Here they are, right, recreating Hogarth's painting A Rake's Progress, The Orgy. Inspired. Keep an eye out for salon-style events to inspire debate, discussion and delight.

• Quiver is at 36 Newnham Road, Cambridge. Contact (01223) 357705 and see facebook.com/QuiverCompany.

HIS 'N' HERS

Gift sets are plentiful at this time of year but our prize for the best looking box sets goes to Ted Baker. Feast your eyes on The Girl with the Beautiful Face (£40, at Boots) which combines an exquisitely illustrated to-keep box of drawers with just about everything required to create a beautiful face. The boys' Overnighter comes in a good-looking leather wash bag packed with shaving products galore, towel and comb (£35, at Boots). We'll take one of each.

AWAY DAYS

This is smart. A soft leather case with a sleek portable battery power pack to keep mobile devices charged while on the go is the perfect luxury travel essential for any jetsetter. Remove the power bank and, ta-da, you now have a potential mini clutch, passport cover or coin purse. Makes a great gift for him or her and (nice touch) it can be personalised with a message or name. As well as being deluxe and lovely, Stow London is local too.
