

Above: Diane Hale, Tricia Sayer, Anthea Davidson, Anne Low and Carolyn Bangs

Right: Catherine Durham, Doris Durham and Marie Gregory

Lady Taverners lunch

Professor Christopher Andrew, of Cambridge University, was guest speaker at a Lady Taverners lunch held at Tattersalls in Newmarket. Guests enjoyed a lovely lunch, perusing stalls and listening to the best-selling author's talk entitled 500 Years of Cambridge Spies.

Pictures by Keith Jones

Above: Carolyn Hannah and Joan Wells

Left: Fiona Hughes, Katie Biss and Jo Wheeler

Below left: Barbara Callin, Pauline Hellowell, Diana Tyers and Jenny Savage

Below right: Sally Barrett, Pauline Jakes, Lady Cass and Julia Wilson

Environmental Awards

Above: Environmental Award winners and the judges

A feast of locally-sourced food and drink was on the menu at the Annual Catering Managers' Committee Environmental Awards Ceremony at Trinity Hall. University catering managers and local environmental champions were treated to fine fizz from Cambridge Wine Merchants, Cambridge Distillery gin, award-winning beers from Milton Brewery, fromage from Cheese+, bread from Cobs Bakery and sausages from The Radwinter Wild Game Company.

Below left: Vincent Fusiello, Ella McVey and Emma Tomes

Below right: Kevin Keohane and Gary Dougan

Above: Bill Brogan, Mick Petty, Mark Hulme and Perry Wakeman

Right: Rachel Mortimer Holdsworth and Ian Reinhardt

Left: Rachelle Stretch, Paul ffolkes Davis and Emma Tomes

ETHOS Hot Yoga

Fitness gurus gathered at ETHOS Hot Yoga Sports Studios in Cambridge to mark the launch of the brand's elite yoga teacher training programme, with a faculty comprising some of the world's top yoga teachers. Cambridge pop-up Curly Kale Café prepared delicious vegan food, with drinks provided by Cambridge Wine Merchants.

Quiver launch party

Guests stepped into a magical world of decadent splendour at the unveiling of Quiver, a unique Cambridge boutique specialising in UK-made corsets, costumery and accessories. While shoppers previewed the opulent range, costumed actors and actresses mingled, misbehaved and served drinks. The eccentric Georgian-inspired store is the brainchild of Isabel King and is on Newnham Road, Cambridge.

Esse 10th birthday bash

Ladies put on the glitz for a glamorous fashion show celebrating Esse Retail and Therapy's 10th anniversary. Sally Saunders started the Melbourn salon with just a handful of clients and now employs 15 people, has six treatment rooms, classes and the latest beauty products. Proceeds from the catwalk extravaganza went to Home-Start Royston & South Cambridgeshire.

